SHE ANSWERS TO MURDER CHARGE

Mrs. Nan Patterson Makes Her Plea Before the Court.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 14.—Mrs. Nan Patterson, the former netress, against whom an indictment for murder in the first degree in connection with the death of Bookmaker Caesar Young was returned by the grand jury yesterday, to-day entered a plea of not guilty before Judgo Newberger in the Court of General Sessions.

sions.

The plca was made with leave to withdraw by next Friday, and in the meantime her counsel will serve notice on the district attorney that he will move to inspect the minutes of the grand jury. The preceedings in court were very brief, occupying hardly more than two minutes, and not one werd was spoken by the prisoner.

Attired in deep mourning, with a heavy black veil, which she was not compelled to raise, Mrs. Patterson entered the court room with her father. Miss Martha Mcroom with her father, allss and har counsel, just before the clerk called the case. With a jaunty air she walked up the alsie to the bar, and when asked to plead to the indictment she turned to Mr. Levy, her attorney, who said: "The defendant pleads not guilty, with leave to withdraw her Erday."

by Friday."
"That is a practice I don't approve of,"
the court replied, "but I will give you mult Friday in which to plead."
This ended the formal arraignment, and the prisoner was at once taken back to the Tombs. As she was led from the court room she bowed and smiled toward her father and friends sitting at the rear of the court room.
